

WILD NATURE CONSENT FORM

Please bring:

- Packed lunch plus healthy snacks and a drink(preferably water) in a small rucksack
- Appropriate outdoor clothes, which you do not mind getting wet or muddy
- Warm hat and gloves in cold weather/ sun hat and sun cream for hot weather
- Long trousers, no matter what the weather, to protect from brambles and nettles
- Waterproof jacket (and trousers if you have them)
- Outdoor shoes or trainers
- Wellington boots as a back up and if its wet
- (Camouflage or dark green/brown clothes are useful if you have them)

Please leave unnecessary valuables at home.

Please make sure your child has adequate clothing, - sometimes, if it's wet, it can help to have some dry stuff for the journey home, and plenty of snacks in their lunch boxes to keep going with. We will be burning up lots of calories now its getting colder.

At times participants may be provided with equipment that must be used in an approved manner at all times.

All participants must remain in any teaching area designated by the instructor. Any decision taken by the instructor is final. Participants acting irresponsibly or posing a threat to themselves or others shall be removed from the activity. Once ejected from an activity, if they wish to attend another event, their place will be subject to a review and agreement.

Wild Nature reserves the right to cancel the event due to severe weather.

Third party/Personal Accident cover is provided, however participants will not be covered if :

- They act without the explicit consent of the instructor
- They act to endanger themselves or others
- They leave the group to which they have been designated
- Medical conditions have not been provided to the organisers (particularly epilepsy, diabetes, asthma, mental illness, brain disorders, joint or bone conditions, other physical/learning disability)
- Consent has not been given stating agreement with the above information and conditions

I agree to the named child/children taking part in a Wild Nature event.

I have ensured that the child/children understand/s the information for his/her safety and the safety of the group and that any rules and instructions given by the staff are obeyed.

I agree to inform the party leader of any changes in the fitness of the participant prior to the date of the event. I am in agreement that those in charge may give permission for the child/children to receive medical treatment in an emergency.

I agree to photographs or videos being taken of the child/children referred to for publicity
